Hi my name is Hadassah!

I am artist and a former Morah (Hebrew word for teacher) for little children and seniors in the Jewish community where I live in Brookline Ma.

I use several pseudonym’s in both my professional and personal life

Kimmie Joy Zeltzer

Tzedeck Zeltzer

(You can pronounce the “Tze” in the word Tzedeck like a sound a snake makes or the letter “S”).

Tzedeck means Justice in Hebrew

My full Hebrew name

Hadassah Chavivah Bat Chaya Faiga Zeltzer

My work lives at the intersection of visual art, storytelling, and advocacy. Operating under the name Tzedeck—the Hebrew word for justice—I am driven by a deep commitment to social justice, mental health awareness, and the enduring resilience of the Jewish faith. Whether through poetry, graphic art, lyricism, film, or music.

My practice is an exploration of the human experience and an ongoing search for healing.

I create multi-disciplinary pieces to give voice to the voiceless, drawing on my personal narrative to foster empathy and systemic change. By blending vulnerability with creative expression, I aim to break the stigma surrounding mental health and trauma while connecting with larger communal narratives. Ultimately, my art serves as a tool for connection, advocacy, and social impact.

May we all of the accessibly and resources we need to have a life worth living.

Amen!
